NPCI sets standardized limits for cash withdrawals and mini statements on AePS transactions

In order to make Aadhaar enabled Payments Systems more standardized (AePS), the National Payments Corporation of India (NPCI) has introduced limits for cash withdrawals and mini statements which needs to implement by the acquiring banks by January 15, 2022.

What are the guidelines?

i. As per the guidelines, the acquiring banks will have to implement a maximum limit of five approved cash withdrawal transactions per customer per terminal per day.

- Cash withdrawal from micro ATMs (Automated teller machine) of AePS has a limit of Rs 10,000 per transaction.

ii. Issuers will implement a standardised limit of a minimum of five approved cash withdrawal transactions per month for every customer.

iii. Further, issuers will also implement a standardised limit of a minimum of five mini statement transactions per customer per month.

iv. There will also be Two-factor authentication for login of business correspondents (BC), agents and merchants at least once a day with one of the factors as Aadhaar based biometric authentication.

- For this measure the deadline is fixed at January 31, 2022.

Background:

In March 2021, NPCI asked banks to implement a minimum monthly limit of five mini statement transactions. Post five transactions, issuer banks can either decline the request or charge a fee.

- A total of 9.6 crore transactions worth Rs 25,860.92 crore took place through AePS in December 2021.

About National Payments Corporation of India (NPCI):

It is an umbrella organization for operating retail payments and settlement systems in India.
